It was very pleasing to maintain our record of success against non league clubs in the FA Cup at Griffin Park when we beat Bishops Stortford 4:0 a fortnight ago. We have now earned a home tie in the second round next Saturday with Northampton Town. We would like to remind season ticket holders that they have to purchase their normal seat for this game and have until first post Wednesday December 5th to do so. Applications may be received by post with a stamped addressed envelope or by personal call at the secretary's office from after today's games.

This afternoon we are back to the bread and butter of the League, having in the last week had away games at Bournemouth and Newport County. At Bournemouth on Saturday we lost by one goal to nil and these notes went to press before our third attempt to settle the Newport game last Tuesday.

AWAY TO Q.P.R.

Our Juniors have been drawn away to Q.P.R. in the F.A. Youth Cup and this match will take place at Loftus Road next Thursday, December 6th (K.O. 7.30 pm). Bobby Ross who coaches Rangers will be keen for revenge after we gave them the KO last season.

REUNION

There was a fine reunion of our former players at Denbigh Road last Sunday when an ex-

Bees team beat ex-Hounslow 4-3 as part of Hounslow's Centenary celebrations. It was not strictly ex-Bees as Frank McLintock captained our side which included Chic Brodie, Alan Hawley, Jackie Graham, Tom Higginson, Peter Geeson, Dennis Heath (only player over 50), etc. Our marksmen were Bobby Ross, Eddie Reeve, Gordon Phillips and Roger Cross. Tony Spencer was in action for ex-Hounslow.

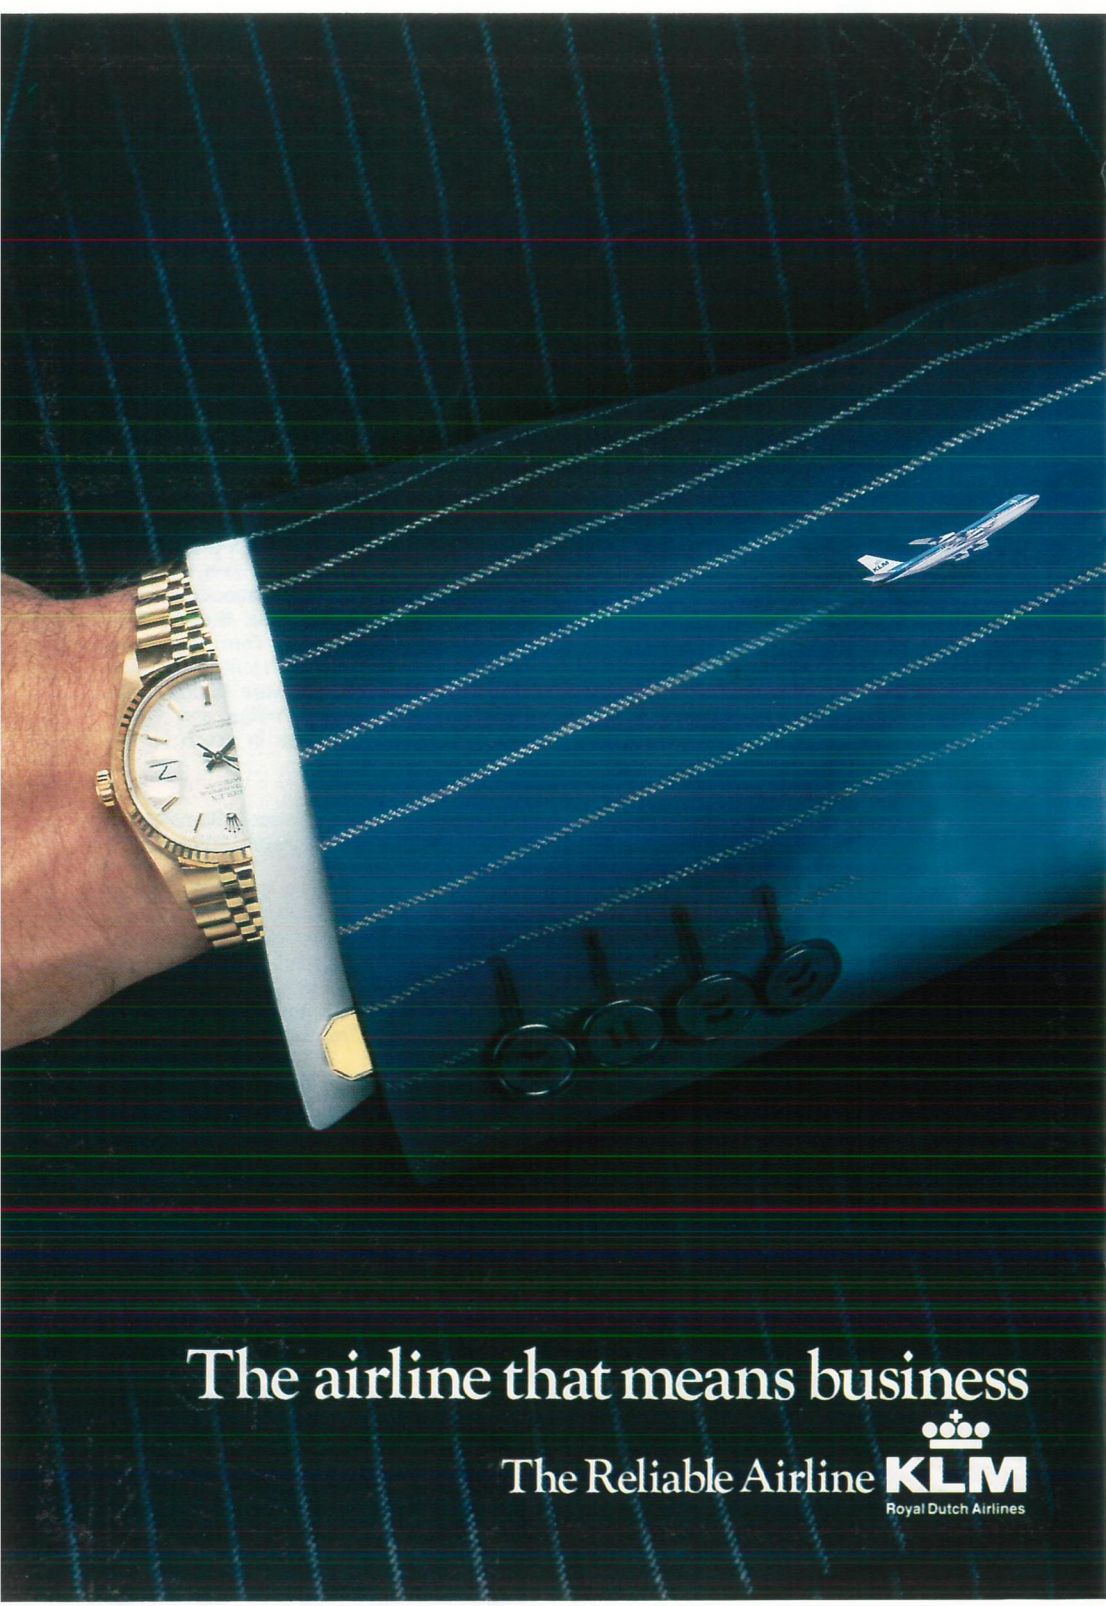

DISCO

The players are holding a disco in Bumbles Bar this evening starting at 7.30 pm. Admission on the door will cost £2.00.

This afternoon we welcome Bolton Wanderers to Griffin Park, remembering we were promoted with them to the First Division in 1935 and have had many interesting tussles with them since. We trust you will see an enjoyable game and that the points will stay at Griffin Park. Let us hear you giving the lads your vocal support this afternoon.

SPOTLIGHT ON

PAUL ROBERTS

Manager Frank McLintock says that Paul Roberts has this season "been playing out of his skin." Paul himself admits to enjoying being in the centre of defence and said he has struck up a good understanding with both Steve Wignall and Danis Salman. Paul comments, "I have always considered that central defence was my best position since I was a 16-year-old in the Millwall youth team. When I first came to Brentford Fred Callaghan asked me to play at full-back as the Club was struggling in that position and I agreed to do so, but I was glad to get back into the middle."

Paul admits that he viewed the arrival of Frank McLintock as Manager with some trepidation, saying, "when George Graham became Millwall's Manager it was clear I was not his type of player and was quickly out of the team, which is why I was happy to come to Brentford on loan in the first place. When I heard Frank was coming to Brentford I know how friendly he was with George Graham and how their views often coincided, but Frank quickly told me that it was up to me to prove that I was worth a place in the team." The fact that Paul has been ever present this season quite clearly means he has proved his point and he was also last season's Ealing Gazette's choice as "Player of the Year."

Hopefully, he will go from strength to strength, but is still looking for that first League goal that eludes him, his only success coming in the FA Cup at Dagenham last season. However, his chances of scoring are somewhat restricted in the centre of defence, but that is the last thing he is worrying about now.

You will no doubt have read the various reports in the local papers of my comments on the booing of Tom Finney by our own supporters in the Cup Tie with Bishop's Stortford.

I think enough has now been said on this subject and it is time that we all pulled together in the best interest of Brentford Football Club.

I appreciate that some of your criticisms and frustrations are justified particularly those of you who have supported the Club for many years and have seen very little success. I also agree that Tom was not completely innocent although I felt the supporters reaction was too strong in the booing of their own player. I have never known this in over twenty years in the game and find it very puzzling. I have been delighted with the many letters I have received from supporters giving me encouragement and we have all had plenty of opportunity of airing our views. I must make it absolutely clear that I do not condone — and neither does John Docherty — violent play although no team ever wins anything unless they have ball winners in their side.

When John and I first came here we were determined to improve the Club's disciplinary record and at this time last season we had 117 points against us 50% more than this year's 78 so that is some evidence that we are succeeding. I would now like to pay a special tribute to our away supporters who travel long distances in all sorts of weather conditions and at great expense to support the Club. We want an affinity with our supporters and if you can generate the same spirit at home games as the away fans give I am sure it will lift the players. Please make a start today. Things do not happen overnight at Football Clubs but let us work with a view to getting Brentford back into the Second Division.

Manager JOHN McGOVERN

John was appointed player/manager of Bolton in June 1982 and had the unhappy experience of watching his new charges relegated at the end of his first term in office.

John's playing career began at Hartlepool under Brian Clough. After 71 appearances he again joined forces with Clough at Derby. There he won a League Championship medal, before moving to Leeds, again in the footsteps of Cloughie. He made only four League appearances for them and then followed his controversial boss to Nottingham Forest where he added a further League Championship medal to his collection along with two from the European Cup and two from the League Cup.

Bolton are experiencing another disappointing campaign, and with the season barely three months old, it would appear they have very little left to play for.

Their hopes of mounting a serious challenge for Third Division honours have been smashed almost beyond redemption by an away record which shows eight straight defeats, a sequence which constitutes a new club record, overhauling the previous worst set in 1963-64 when relegation brought to an end 29 uninterrupted years as a First Division club; in fact since they partnered Brentford to promotion from the Second Division in 1935. Bolton's failure to break their duck away from home is doubly frustrating, as at Burnden Park they have at times shown promotion form, a 7-2 hammering dished out to Plymouth, and four goal beating of local rivals Preston helping to make their tally of 19 goals in eight Canon League fixtures the best in the Division.

Indeed since Bristol Rovers won 1-0 at Burnden on the opening day, followed by a goalless draw with Hull, Bolton have won six on the trot at home, beating in turn Plymouth 7-2, Walsall 3-1, Bournemouth 2-1, Preston 4-0, Lincoln 1-0 and York 2-1 before losing at home to Gillingham last Saturday. Bolton gave a much better account of themselves on their travels in the early rounds of the Milk Cup, holding Second Division Oldham 4-4 away following a 2-1 victory at home to progress 6-5 on aggregate, and then drawing 2-2 at Shrewsbury before winning the Second leg at Burnden 2-1. However, it was then that their poor away form in the Canon League spilled over into Cup competition, Notts County effectively wrapping up their Third round tie at Meadow Lane inside the first 32 minutes by when they were six goals ahead. Bolton stemmed the flood threatening to engulf them and eventually went down 6-1.

Their hopes of a financially rewarding run in the FA Cup ended a fortnight ago at Hull, a last gasp toe-poke from Massey giving the homesters a rather tortuous 2-1 victory.

You have to go back 18 games (14 League, 4 Cup) to find the last time Bolton picked up an away win, when goals from Whatmore, Thompson and Joyce helped them secure a 3-2 victory at Newport.

However, that sequence is nowhere near as bad as their record in London over the last five years as since winning a First Division fixture against QPR at Loftus Road in December 1978, Wanderers have been beaten in 27 of their 28 visits to the Capital in League and Cup, including a 7-1 hiding at QPR in 1981-82 which came close to equalling their all-time record 7-0 defeat at Manchester City in March 1936.

The nearest Bolton have come to halting that sequence came in a 2-2 draw at Orient in 1981, the only time they have managed to find the net more than once in those 28 outings.

Bolton had been to the First Division and back between their previous two visits to Griffin Park with League points at stake. In 1972, Brentford came from behind to win 2-1 (Allen, Murray) on August Bank Holiday Monday in front of Griffin Park's top crowd of the season, 11,800. In one of the best games here for many years Byrom gave Bolton an early lead, but faced by non-stop pressure their defence eventually wilted. Mickey Allen netted the equaliser, and two minutes before the interval Allan Murray fired what transpired the winner. That run lifted us into second spot, but by the time we met in the return it was a very different kettle of fish and while Burnden's second best crowd of the season of 21,646 were intent on celebrating Bolton's Championship success, Brentford were already destined for the Fourth Division. True to form Bolton won 2-0 (Byrom, Nicholson). Incidentally, Bolton's best crowd that season was a bumper 33,000 against local rivals, and fellow promotion front runners, Blackburn Rovers. Our paths next crossed in January 1976 when we were drawn against each other in the third round of the F.A. Cup. Brentford, then managed by John Docherty, held Bolton to a goalless draw at Griffin Park, the attendance of 12,452 representing the best here since Wanderers' previous visit, but went down 2-0 in the replay in front of 18,538 fans.

MISSED OUT

Bolton just missed out on promotion to the First Division that season and the next, but made no mistake twelve months later when pipping Southampton and Spurs for the Second Division title.

Sadly, Bolton lasted only two seasons in top grade and they completed their ten-year round trip when falling back into the Third Division in May 1983. Two goals in the first four minutes from Francis Joseph helped ensure that Bolton got no joy at Griffin Park on their visit last April, an own goal by Ray Deakin completing a comprehensive 3-0 victory. Brentford, with Stan Bowles back in harness, had earlier gone down 1-0 at Burnden. Bolton's average attendance as they fought a losing battle to stay in the Second Division two seasons ago fell to 7,510 and with Third Division honours never really within their grasp last season gates dipped still further to 5,890, including the lowest at Burnden on record of 3,045 for the visit of Bournemouth on April 28th. Eight games into the present campaign, and Bolton having lost touch with the leaders, that figure is down to under 4,700.

The Bolton squad shows few changes from last season, and apart from Neil Whatmore all the players we saw in action against us here in April are still at Burnden. Seven made 40 or more Canon League appearances for the Trotters, although only JEFF CHANDLER, a Brentford target before his £40,000 move from Leeds in October 1981 was ever present.

Absent just once was local find WARREN JOYCE, while the others who were more or less permanent fixtures in the side were full-backs RAY DEAKIN and BRIAN BORROWS, both signed from Everton; current Northern Ireland International GERRY McELHINNEY, a £25,000 buy from Belfast Distillery in 1980; PETER VALENTINE, who arrived from Huddersfield and former apprentice STEVE THOMPSON. The other regulars were goalkeeper SIMON FARNWORTH, who against Lincoln last month saved the fourth consecutive penalty he has faced, and who is one of eight players to have progressed through the ranks the others being NEIL BERRY, PAUL BOOTH, JIM PHILLIPS, WAYNE FOSTER, SIMON RUDGE, STEVE SAUNDERS and STEVE THOMPSON; striker TONY CALDWELL, a bargain signing from Horwich RMI who went on to top score with 24 goals and former Oldham and Preston midfielder GRAHAM BELL, an ever-present following his arrival from Carlisle in February.

Completing the line-up are reserve goalkeeper JOHN PLATT (ex-Oldham and Bury) and two further signings from non-League football, defender MARK CAME (Winsford United) and striker GEORGE OGHANI (Hyde United) who failed to score in 3 appearances last season, but who this term has taken on Tony Caldwell's goalscoring mantle, his 14 goals in League and Cup making him the Division's leading marksman.

BEES SNIPS

ASHAMED

I never thought I would see the day when I had cause to feel ashamed of my fellow Brentford supporters.

Sadly that day arrived last Saturday week, during the game against Bishop Stortford; I'm sure all those present know what I am talking about. The fact that our team, two great saves from Trevor Swinburne apart, walked all over Bishop Stortford to progress another stage along the road to Wembley, took second place to the disgraceful treatment dished out to one of our players, Tom Finney.

The haunted expression on Tom's face as he left the field to a chorus of boos when substituted by Bob Booker, will linger long in the memory of all fair minded Brentford supporters.

The look of disgust by manager Frank McLintock when he came out of the dug-out to face the discenters said it all.

There can be no quarrel with the loyalty shown by the Griffin Park crowd. Faced with very little in the way of success over the years and the fact that we seem to monopolise the tag of West London's poor relations, attendances in comparison with elsewhere have held up remarkably well.

The pity of it is that in recent times a majority of those supporters feel unable to channel their undoubted enthusiasm for Brentford Football Club into giving more vociferous support, as opposed to jeers, to some of the men who wear the club's colours.

Bishop Stortford coach John Radford hit it on the button when following a spying mission to the ground for the previous week's game against Lincoln he commented that the Bees crowd were worth a goal start-to the Visitors! What a commendation.

F.A. YOUTH CUP v CRYSTAL PALACE (home) Won 4-1 5th November 1984

Scorers: Jimson, Millen, Myers (penalty), Bates.

A good team performance was the hallmark of this game as the Youth team beat Crystal Palace 4-1. Our first half performance was full of inventive and positive football and it was no surprise when Alan Myers fed Bennett on the overlap and his cross found Micky Jimson who shot home. We continued to dominate although Palace looked dangerous on the break and Steven Hawkins in goal was called on to make two good saves. Our second goal came just before half-time when Mark Gill did very well to hold the ball up and set up Keith Millen whose blistering drive went in off a post. The second half saw Crystal Palace come out in a much more aggressive mood and they pulled a goal back from a close range header from a corner. We weathered the next ten minutes and scored our third when Darren Foreman was fouled in the penalty area, Alan Myers scoring from the spot. The last goal was credited to Jamie Bates who did well to flick in a Nicky Bennett corner.

SOUTH EAST COUNTIES JUNIOR CUP v CRYSTAL PALACE (home) Won 5-2 10th November 1984

Scorers: Bates, Jimson 2, Myers and Rudolph

The Youth team completed a seven day double over Crystal Palace by beating them in the Junior Cup. We got off to a good start when Nicky Jimson slammed home a cross from Glen Brophy.

The game was very competitive and both teams were creating chances. Alan Myers hit the post with a long drive but soon after Palace equalised when their centre-forward outpaced our back four and side-footed in. The second half again was end to end and after both teams had missed good chances, we scored three goals in six minutes. Good finishing by Jimson and Myers were followed by Jamie Bates scoring from a corner which effectively ended Palace's challenge.

They scored a second goal soon after but substitute Rudolph made it 5-2 with almost his first touch taking a through ball in his stride and slipping his shot under the advancing goalkeeper.

BRENT HILLS

ROUND & ABOUT

By Graham Haynes

Frank McLintock is Brentford's 15th manager since the war. His predecessors have covered a wide range of personalities from the original quiet man Malcolm Macdonald to the extrovert Tommy Cavanagh; from the most successful manager in the club's history Harry Curtis, whose particular forte was man management to the modern day tracksuit supremo such as John Docherty and Fred Callaghan.

They met with varying degrees of success during their period at the helm, Harry Curtis, Malcolm Macdonald and Frank Blunstone for example experiencing both the joys of promotion and the agony of relegation, but if you had to place them in a league table of achievement then it is a fair bet that Mike Everitt, whose brief 17-month stay included a few weeks in October 1973 when Brentford carried the Fourth Division on its shoulders, would come at, or near, the bottom. However, while Mike cannot look back on his reign at Griffin Park with much satisfaction, he has more than made up for it since as manager of Egyptian side Arab Contractors, emerging as one of the most successful coaches on the Continent of Africa.

Under his leadership Contractors, only formed in 1962, have twice won the African version of the European Cup Winners Cup (1982 and 1983) and last year scooped the pool when also winning the Egyptian League Championship for the first time, conceding only one game and seven goals in the process.

Mike, a regular in Northampton's express journey from the Fourth Division to the First back in the 1960's was a surprise choice to succeed Frank Blunstone at Griffin Park as he had met with little success in his two previous attempts at management. His first as player manager of Western League Plymouth City came to an abrupt end when they folded midway through the season, and was followed by two mediocre years at then Southern League Wimbledon.

After leaving Brentford Mike subsequently coached at Leicester City and is one of three Brentford managers in recent years to have held either a coaching or managerial position at Filbert Street. The others? Bill Dodgin and Frank McLintock.

Dodgin, incidentally, started the season as manager of Isthmian League Woking, but resigned after a run of indifferent results.

Sponsorship is playing an ever-increasingly important role in football, bringing much needed extra revenue into the game.

One important area is shirt sponsorship, 70 of the 92 Canon League clubs this season benefiting in this way, including nineteen from the Third Division.

Bishop Stortford's visit on FA Cup duty a fortnight ago and mention of their Amateur Cup Semi-final here in 1974 brought to light the fact that Griffin Park was the venue for one of the competition's semi's nine times between 1947 and its demise in the year of Bishops success.

In 1946-47 Leytonstone beat Barnet 2-1 here before going on to lift the trophy with a 2-1 defeat of Wimbledon. Three years later Bishop Auckland saw off the challenge of Wycombe Wanderers before meeting their match in fellow Northern League opponents Willington 4-0 at Wembley. In 1953 Harwich & Parkston beat Walton & Her-sham only to crash 6-0 to Pegasus in front of a 100,000 full house at Wembley in the Final. Woking won their Semi-final replay against Barnet 3-2 here in 1958 and walked the Final 3-0 against Ilford.

Hendon won the North London derby with Enfield 2-0 two years later to earn the right to meet Kingstonian at Wembley in the Final, winning 2-1. In 1962 a crowd of almost 14,000 saw rank outsiders Hounslow Town cause a major upset in beating ten time Amateur Cup winners Bishop Auckland 2-1 (Dipper, Creasey).

Our lowly Athenian League neighbours, 100-1 outsiders at the competition's outset went on to hold Crook Town 1-1 in the final at Wembley only to crash 4-0 in the replay at Middlesbrough.

In 1968 Leytonstone returned to the scene of their 1947 triumph to beat Sutton United 3-1 and again went on to lift the trophy thanks to a narrow one goal victory over Chesham United in the final.

The penultimate semi-final staging here came four years later, Hendon beating Wycombe Wanderers 2-1 before winning the all North London final against Enfield 2-0.

PERSONALLY SPEAKING

There have been 38 full seasons completed up to and including last year, since the resumption of the Football League in 1946. This could be represented as a continuous league, and wondered where Brentford would be positioned within post war league table? After a few hours diligent research and double checking all was revealed.

The continuous table was calculated in the following manner from the end of season tables of the past years:

Champions of the 2nd Division are awarded 23 points following on from the 1st Division. 3rd Division winners are given 45 points and so on down to the 4th Division bottom club who received 92 points. During the period 1946-58, the League consisted of two 3rd Divisions — North and South. Here the Champions of both Divisions are awarded 45 points, the runners-up 46 points and so on down to the last clubs. The total points accumulated by each team are then totted up and then averaged out.

This system is however, slightly unfair to the clubs that have achieved League status since 1946, i.e. Oxford United, Gillingham, Wimbledon etc.

From the tables above, a prediction can be made on which teams will be relegated or promoted. This can be achieved on the theory that clubs furthest removed from their average position will find it easier to climb up or slide down. So on this basis the following is obtained.

Division One relegated: Watford, QPR, Luton Town or Norwich.

Division Two promoted: Wolves, Man. City, Leeds United.

Division Two relegated: Wimbledon, Shrewsbury Town, Oldham Athletic or Barnsley.

Division Three promoted: Burnley, Derby Co., Preston North End.

Division Three relegated: Newport Co., Wigan Athletic, York City, Bradford City.

Division Four promoted: Blackpool, Bury, Swindon Town, Wrexham.

JOHN O'MARA

Some small select band of players become a legend in the Club's history and one who will never be forgotten is big John O'Mara, whose 25 goals played a big part in our 1971/72 promotion season. Now our one time striker finds he is a striker yet again as he has not worked for over eight months due to the mining dispute.

Big John, rising 38 and looking as fit as in his Brentford days recently dropped into the ground to say hello to Physio Eddie Lyons and was disappointed to find the man who had laid on most of his goals in that memorable season, John Docherty, our Assistant Manager, was at the training ground.

John is unfortunately the striker who is on strike, as after he finished his playing days he returned to the coal mining industry where he is now an engineer at the Betteshanger Colliery in Deal. As John says, "it is very very difficult keeping a wife and three children aged 11, 8 and 18 months while I have been on strike." It has however given John the opportunity to have an occasional round of golf, which is now his favourite pastime. He remarks that he has got his handicap down to 11 and finds it a game where he has lost all the aggression he used to show on the football field.

John revealed that he very nearly came back to Brentford when Doc was manager here and just before he left he made approaches for him to return and negotiations were carried on afterwards without reaching any conclusion.

We trust for big John's sake that he will soon be back earning a living and can assure him that he is welcome to come to Brentford anytime he is up from his Cliftonville home.

COMMERCIAL CORNER

Good afternoon. We all know that one of the main reasons for falling attendances at football grounds up and down the country is the problem of hooliganism and although we at Brentford are very lucky and get through a season with very few incidents, there are many people who would prefer to stay indoors and watch the box without the fear of becoming involved in ugly scenes or fall victim to this mindless minority. Those who still go to the big matches have to keep looking over their shoulder to ensure their safety which in turn detracts from their enjoyment of the game. Worse still from the football clubs point of view is that parents are now loath to allow their children to go to a match for fear that they may end up in hospital. This cannot be allowed to go on as the youngsters of today are the supporters of tomorrow and no club can afford to lose any of its supporters. Chances are that the majority of people reading this article were first introduced to the terraces by their dads but this habit is now dying out and the youngsters are no longer encouraged by their parents to 'go to the match'. Who can blame them when all we see in the papers are more reports of trouble on the terraces.

Clubs are now waking up to the fact that it is time we began looking for our supporters of the future and most clubs now operate many different schemes for their young fans. We at Brentford operate our Freebees scheme, whereby children under twelve can watch all of our home games completely free of charge in their own enclosure in complete safety. There are two major advantages in this scheme, firstly should there be any crowd trouble, they will be well out of it and secondly, there is a chance that they will become full-time paying Brentford supporters.

All this brings me on to a meeting I attended a couple of weeks ago at the headquarters of the National Dairy Council off Oxford Street. This meeting brought together representatives of the London Clubs and gave us a chance to swap ideas regarding the various schemes for junior fans. The meeting was chaired by Mr.

Graham Walker, marketing manager of the Football League and he introduced us to John Maiden, a Norfolk schoolteacher who for the last year has been working on a project entitled 'Soccer as Family Entertainment' or SAFE for short. John has been working closely with Norwich City and he has taken parties of schoolchildren to Carrow Road to enjoy soccer in completely 'safe' surroundings. Norwich have played their part by sending players to the local schools to discuss their profession, sign autographs, and to give the youngsters the chance to meet their heroes. The ultimate aim is of course to get the children to support the team on a matchday and to keep up their support through their teens and into adulthood.

John Maiden has a wealth of experience in dealing with children through his profession and he is now assisting clubs to organise their own special schemes using 'Safe' as a banner. It is a shame that there is a necessity for this sort of initiative but now that we have it, it deserves every success and I'm sure we will be hearing more of this scheme in the future. Who knows, that one day we may see the headlines on the back of the News of The World. 'Soccer now completely SAFE!'

SUPPORTERS CLUB

NEWS

The receipt recently of a membership application on behalf of DANIEL WHITE who was only four days old sent Dick Harrison on a search through old Supporters Newsletters and Journals for similar instances. Although he is open to correction, it would appear that the record belongs to RICHARD TYLER, son of former Chairman and Founder of the Association, Cyril Tyler, who was registered on December 10th 1952 only 20 minutes after his birth. In 1959 Miss Irene Isobel Hare, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sid Hare was registered when one hour old, and in 1960 Ian Paul Goodall became a member when only 30 minutes old. Also in 1950 Brian Robert Allen was registered when only one hour old, it was doubtful whether this had a popular reception as his father Mr. Michael Allen, knocked out Cyril Tyler at 1.00 a.m. to bring the good news. Has anyone any information on the present whereabouts of the above persons?

JUNIOR BEES — UNDER 13s

Since my last report the team have had a mixed bag of results starting with a fine win in the first round of the Middlesex County Cup coming up against Alpine Manor, High Fliers from another League being beaten 4-2 with two goals each for Ruggins and Henley.

This win was soon put to one side when the following week we came across our own League leaders, Bedfont Eagles "A" who completely dominated the game, coming out 14-1 (Miller) winners.

Having missed a week through lack of referees, our next game we met Old Windsor Royals and sprang back from our previous defeat to dominate the game, the defence momentarily lapsing at the end to concede a late goal, leaving the final score line 8-1 (Tucker 1, Miller 2, Hawksworth 2, Henley 3). Our last game was the first round of the League Cup when we were drawn against Bedfont Eagles "A", the team far from being downhearted worked out some tactics and at half time were unlucky to be trailing 2-1 (Miller). After having had more than a fair share of the play unfortunately in the second half things changed and we eventually lost 7-1. The first half however did give the team encouragement as we have the Second League match to play and fate has drawn us against them in the second round of the Middlesex County Cup.
